For Detroit's New Archbishop Civic and Religious Leaders Gather for Prayer Breakfast

Archbishop Allen Vigneron will be welcomed by civic and religious leaders at a prayer breakfast on Monday, February 2, at 8 a.m. in the Venetian Room of the Westin Book Cadillac in downtown Detroit.

Included among those speaking during the 90-minute program are: Sr. Maureen Fay, O.P., president emeritus, University of Detroit; Mayor Ken Cockrel, Jr., City of Detroit; Imam Hassan Qazwini, Islamic Center of America; Rabbi Joseph Krackoff, Congregation Shaarey Zedek; Rev. Dr. Oscar W. King III, president, Council of Baptist Pastors; Cardinal Adam Maida, archbishop emeritus; and Archbishop Vigneron. Over 100 of the invited guests — local government officials and Interfaith religious representatives — have confirmed their attendance.

Those covering this event are advised the prayer breakfast will run on a precisely timed schedule, starting at 8 a.m. sharp. An audio Mult-Box will be provided.

Media resources produced for the recent Installation Mass for Archbishop Vigneron are available at www.AODonline.org/archbishop.
